

Unlock Your Future: workflow for one item.

Choir leaders and choreographer received brief.

Negotiated musical arrangement with band leaders and musicians.

Liaised with staff and use technology to access sheet music.

Leaders designed instruction to teach performance to K-6 students and other 7-12 students.

Choreographed the dance.

Liaised with the band to change the key to suit the choir voices.

Taught students and teachers at other schools in person and using online tools they developed.

Designed the use of stage space, including entry and exit strategy for 120 K-12 students on stage simultaneously.

Liaised with backstage and sound and lighting teams to create effects and communicate staging requirements

